TOBACCO MUST BEAR PART OF COST OF WAR

Special Revenue Act, Effective To-Day, Will Cost Richmond $50,000 Per Annum.

Bankers, Brokers and Those Engaged in Various Amusement Enterprises Must Also Pay Share of Burden Caused by War.

Practically all classes of business in the city are reached by the war tax recently passed by Congress and which goes into effect to-day. The tobacco industry will be particularly hard hit, although bankers, brokers, commission merchants, pool-rooms, bowling alleys and theatres will also suffer by the new special tayes Bicks.

The tax which becomes effective today is a special tax and not a stamp tax. It will be paid in advance in the manner of other taxes, and must be paid before the end of the month to avoid a 50 per cent penalty. Deputy Collector Curtis M. Dozler will have charge of the new department, and Division Deputy Collector E. N. Scuthward is in charge of the notification of those liable to taxation. TOBACCO INDUSTRIES

WILL PAY LARGE TAX The new tax will be felt here strong. ly on account of the tobacco indus-tries. Manufacturers of cigars, ciga-rettes and tobaccos, dealers in leaf toseco and retailers and wholesalers are all subject to the extra levy. The tax on the manufacturers is a graduated one, and ranger from $3 to $2,496, in accordance with the amount of business done during the year. There are sev-eral manufacturers in each class who will pay the maximum, while none will pay the minimum, or near the bottom price. There are seven cigar manufac-turers; two cigarette manufacturers, Dark Horse Wins Postmastership at Harrisonburg.

Advices from Washington, by way of Harrisonburg, received at the Capitol yesterday, relate that the fight for the postmastership of that city has terminated with the definite selection of a dark horse for postmaster.

The report is to the effect that the contest between the four candidates for the office grew so warm and the strength of the quartet was so evenly balanced, that a compromise was deemed expedient. Further, according to this report, the party leaders in the district agreed upon Frank Subjett, a hay and grain dealer, of Harrisonburg, and he will be appointed to the office within a few days.
